APRIL L. WILMAR NAMED PARTNER AT BERNKOPF GOODMAN LLP

BOSTON, MA – Bernkopf Goodman LLP is pleased to announce that April L. Wilmar has become a partner of the firm.

Ms. Wilmar specializes in real estate law, as well as corporate and business law.

Ms. Wilmar's experience includes commercial and residential real estate transactions, financing, title and survey work, acquisitions of distressed loans, entity formation and restructuring, and syndication and securities work in connection with private placement offerings. Her practice also includes the representation of both commercial and residential landlords and tenants, multi-family property owners, hotel, restaurant and other retail owners, lenders and borrowers, title companies in title-related disputes, and individuals and small businesses.

In addition to being known for her strong advocacy for her clients, Ms. Wilmar founded The John Thomas and Special Friends Fund, a non-profit corporation organized to benefit children with special needs and the institutions and organizations that care for and support them, and organizes and implements all of its fundraising events.
